Biznistry: Transforming Lives Through Enterprise

By Chuck Proudfit

P5 Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 190 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Most Christians live in two worlds their faith and their work. The work world is generally hostile to living out faith at work, and the church discourages or neglects the marketplace gifts and talents of its body. Faith is not accepted in business, and business is not accepted in ministry. The result is that marketplace Christians feel they lack eternal purpose, while ministry lacks needed resources to accomplish God's work. Biznistry merges Christian ministry and best business practices to create a new kind of organization with a Christ-centered work environment, right in the midst of the general marketplace. This book challenges individuals, organizations and churches to stretch the boundaries of their faith, embracing business talents as God-given gifts to be used by Him and for Him. Written by an entrepreneurial church pastor and a Harvard businessman, this practical book is filled with real-life examples of lives transformed through Christ-centered enterprise. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
