B-262220 Ultimately, the critical question is whether undercontributing for a given plan persists from year to year and whether its funding level improves or worsens. Our 2-year analysis attempts to address this question, but, PPCC unfortunately, the Survey does not yet have complete data for enough plans for enough years to draw firm conclusions. Regarding this analysis, PPCCs database administrator also commented that it is not appropriate to generalize from the relatively small number of plans that had complete data for both years. We agree and, in fact, were careful not to generalize from this 2-year analysis; we presented this analysis only to illustrate and focus on the implications of persistent undercontributing. In general, both commenters stated their view that the funding status of GASB reporting rules state and local pensions is improving. One noted that may provide further impetus to improve state and local plan funding and contributions. Both commenters also had some technical comments, which we have incorporated where appropriate. As arranged with your office, unless you publicly announce its contents earlier, we plan no further distribution of this report until 30 days from the date of this letter. At that time, copies will be made available to others upon request.
