Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.3in. x 0.4in. After 30 years of teaching in the public schools, it seems to me that more and more of our students have empty souls. Taking God and prayer out of the classroom has made our students vulnerable to the negative, changing morals of our time. We are battling an enemy who encourages our youth to do your own thing, make your own rules, and look out for 1. We teachers can bring prayer back into our schools, even if we can't pray out loud. We can cover our students with prayer and change our mental and verbal vocabulary concerning them. If we are faithful in our desire to see change, God will give us a new picture for each of our Sammys. Who is Sammy? Sammy is not an individual student but a compilation of all the students I have dealt with over the years who have had behavior problems, learning disabilities, poor grades, or who were disinterested in school, were social outcasts, or were gang members. I tried many different kinds of behavior modification techniques with these students. It was not until I solicited the power of the Holy Spirit, through my hope in Jesus Christ, however, that I began to see a difference in my interactions with my Sammys. This workbook focuses on the changes God wants to make in us and through us. By His Holy Spirit, we can pray for our Sammys and so make a difference in their lives. These changes are described in Galatians 5: 22-23 and are called Fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. This workbook has been designed as a tool to support you, the Christian teacher, in today's...
